GREAT MERITI

and Amusement!!! combined in one. Strangers coming to New York think it impossible to leave the city without visiting each thea-tre at least once. The memory of these visits is fletting and the result expensive. It is as much economy to know where to put in amusement as in any other purchase. If for 50 cents we can enjoy four to six hours of rare delight and instruction it is money well laid out, and that end can be reached by visiting Dr. KAHN'S Museum, at 745 Broadway, and viewing what cannot be seen in any part of the world but there. This wonderful collection has been brought together after great labor by experis and scientific men at an outlay of

A QUARTER OF A MILLION OF MONEY, and comprises in three elegant halls over twenty thou-sand curious objects, considing of malformations of the human trame; the anatomy of fruits, flowers, reptiles and birds; relies of the olden time, and waxen figures of all the strange human creatures which have astonished the world.
